

9TR Alcott

The purpose of this procedure is to insure successful selection of trainees.

STATINTL

1. Applicants will be interviewed initially by [REDACTED] who will make a factual summary of the applicant's history, and either send the applicant to Alcott Hall for testing, or consult a senior member of the staff to determine whether he should be considered at all or sent back to Personnel.

2. Applicants will be tested in Alcott Hall by the Chief, Testing and Evaluation, as follows:

Logical reasoning test

Miller analogies or Neuman Nelson

Word meaning

Basic numbers (if the score of any of above is mediocre)

Biographic questionnaire

Written interview

STATINTL

A score of poor on any of these will disqualify an applicant.
A score of mediocre may be balanced by a score of excellent on another of these tests. Results will be sent to [REDACTED], who will arrange interviews.

3. Applicants whose scores meet these standards [REDACTED] be interviewed by two or more of the following:
